FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

K2C Real Estate Solutions Serves Relocate-America.com's Number One Place to Live

Charlotte, NC (September 12, 2008) – K2C Real Estate Solutions, a real estate consulting firm featuring communities in Charlotte, North Carolina, serves one of the Southeast's most premier places to live. Charlotte, North Carolina has been ranked as the number one place to live on Relocate-America.com's Top 100 Places to Live for 2008.

Relocate-America.com accepts nominations for cities and towns throughout the country to be considered the top place to live. The website takes into account an area's growth, its educational and employment opportunities, crime rates and housing options when granting cities on this list.

"We knew Charlotte would be a great location for us," says Jake Kent, President of K2C Real Estate Solutions. "Homebuyers from all over are relocating to Charlotte due to the amenities it offers. Our featured communities Sheffingdell, Reverdy End, Cobblestone Row, and the Cottages on Commonwealth, all located in Charlotte, offer great housing options and home affordability to homebuyers."

Kent adds that these communities are located in premier school districts with great employment opportunities. "These communities offer convenience to great restaurants and shopping, and are minutes away from Interstate 77 and 485, creating easy access to places all over the United States."
