FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Sheffingdell and Reverdy End Offers Lower Cost of Living

Charlotte, NC (October 9, 2008) – Sheffingdell and Reverdy End, featured communities of K2C Real Estate Solutions (www.K2C-Realty.com), offers a lower cost of living to residents in South Charlotte.

Sheffingdell and Reverdy End are both located in South Charlotte, one of the fastest growing regions of greater Charlotte. People are relocating here because housing, utility costs, healthcare and even taxes are much lower in Charlotte. Charlotte is ranked number seven on the ACCRA's Cost of Living Index for 2008, which compares Charlotte to other cities in the United States.

“Compared to other cities such as Boston, New York and Philadelphia, Charlotte offers a much lower cost of living,” says Jake Kent, President of K2C Real Estate Solutions. “Our communities, Sheffingdell and Reverdy End, offer affordable housing options for people relocating here for job opportunities or to be with their families.”

Sheffingdell and Reverdy End, both located in South Charlotte, not only offer a lower cost of living compared to other cities in the United States, but also offer a lower cost of living compared to other areas within the greater Charlotte metro area. South Charlotte offers affordable housing options, lower transportation, utility and healthcare costs and lower taxes.
